Process report week 3

I really like the content I am working on this week. What I need to do makes me google more and understand more about kotlin as well as how to build a program from start.

All the earlier modules helps a lot in doing the lab 3 tasks. Including how to push/commit code, use emulator, create a lay out.

I am good with this week content, not too difficult.